

Women's Concerns Report

1. August 1973: Focus on role of women in the church
2. October 1973: Focus on ordination and the minister's wife, the role of women in the Mennonite church
3. December 1973: Restoring wholeness, the Martha-complex
4. February 1974: Study groups on women, the status of widows in the church
5. April 1974: On education
6. Summer 1974: Women, work and the church
7. Fall 1974: Perspectives on 1974, The implications of interdependence and cooperation
8. January – May 1975: Women's representation on church committees; a single goes to Africa
9. October – December 1975: How women fared at three official Mennonite conferences; reports on task force projects and seminars on women's concerns
10. March – April 1976: The "total woman" phenomenon; experiences as women in the working world; the politics of rape
11. July 1976: Worship
12. December 1976: Parenthood and childbearing
13. February 1977: Men
14. May 1977: Media
15. July 1977: Language
16. September 1977: Rape
17. November 1977: Third World women
18. February 1978: The auxiliary syndrome
19. April – May 1978: Women in ministry
20. June – July 1978: Black women and the church
21. August – September 1978: Women and careers
22. October – November 1978: Women and World Conference
23. December 1978: Family violence, part 1
24. January 1979: Family violence, part 2
25. March – April 1979: Women and power
26. July 1979: Native Americans
27. August 1979: New men, new roles
28. November – December 1979: The child
29. January – February 1980: Women in the speaking ministry of the church
30. March – April 1980: Returned missionary women
31. May – June 1980: Mennonite women and depression
32. July – August 1980: Follow up focus on Native Americans/Canadians
33. September – October 1980: Women in leadership
34. November – December 1980: Women in Mennonite business/industry
35. January – February 1981: Women and militarism
36. March – April 1981: Mentoring for and by women
37. May – June 1981: Ministry of writing
38. July – August 1981: Minister's spouse
39. September – October 1981: Discipleship motives on career choices
40. November – December 1981: Focus on singleness and single parenting
41. January – February 1982: Women and health
42. March – April 1982: Language: Inclusiveness
43. May – June 1982: Ordination
44. July – August 1982: Sexuality and God's Kingdom
45. September – October 1982: Peace and the power of one woman
46. November – December 1982: Two career marriages
47. February 1983: Nurturing children: feminist roots – what nurtures their growth?
48. March – April 1983: Women mystics and the devotional life
49. May – June 1983: Women and the Word: The interpretive intrigue
50. July – August 1983: Ten-year celebration of CWC
51. September – October 1983: Women's experiences in nontraditional Mennonite churches
52. November – December 1983: Women and aging
53. January – February 1984: Mennonite women and home mission
54. March – April 1984: Third World women
55. May – June 1984: Childbearing/childlessness
56. July – August 1984: Friendship and community
57. September – October 1984: Women and poverty
58. November – December 1984: Women and body image
59. January – February 1985: Black women and feminism
60. March – April 1985: Women and the special child
61. May – June 1985: Women's development; A critique of existing theory
62. July – August 1985: Mothers and daughters
63. September – October 1985: Women and decision-making in Mennonite institutions
64. January – February 1986: Women, pornography and violence
65. March – April 1986: Women, men and housework
66. May – June 1986: Divorce and the church
67. July – August 1986: Women, choice and lifestyle
68. September – October 1986: Women resisting injustice
69. November – December 1986: Women and advertising
70. January – February 1987: Sharing our stories (social roles & sexuality)
71. March – April 1987: Women and counseling
72. May – June 1987: Asian women doing theology
73. July – August 1987: Widowhood
74. September – October 1987: Wife abuse
75. November – December 1987: Mennonite women artists
76. January – February 1988: Our God-talk: Images, idols, metaphors & masks
77. March – April 1988: Farm women in crisis
78. May – June 1988: Palestinian women
79. July – August 1988: Women as domestic help
80. September – October 1988: Women with disabilities
81. November – December 1988: Mennonite women leaders 'round the world
82. January – February 1989: Mennonite women leaders 'round the world, part 2
83. March – April 1989: Incest
84. May – June 1989: Shelter, housing, homelessness
85. July – August 1989: Cancer
86. September – October 1989: Sex tourism and prostitution
87. November – December 1989: Women around the world: What are their options?
88. January – February 1990: Aging
89. March – April 1990: Women: Bearing the cross of discipleship
90. May – June 1990: Women of South Africa
91. July – August 1990: Co-dependency

Women's Concerns Report

92. September – October 1990: Women, environment & a throw-away society
93. November – December 1990: Motherhood, careers and spirituality
94. January – February 1991: Mental illness
95. March – April 1991: Drugs and alcohol
96. May – June 1991: The seduction of materialism
97. July – August 1991: Literacy
98. September – October 1991: Shopping cart power
99. November – December 1991: The childbearing years
100. January – February 1992: Parenting in a cross-cultural setting
101. March – April 1992: Women and healthy sexuality
102. May – June 1992: Women struggling in the church
103. July – August 1992: Native women
104. September – October 1992: Women and the international debt
105. November – December 1992: Women Doing Theology: Conference report
106. January – February 1993: Good news for men
107. March – April 1993: Women and dress
108. May – June 1993: Women in church colleges
109. July – August 1993: 20 anniversary issue
110. September – October 1993: Step- and single-parent families
111. November – December 1993: Women's groups in Central America
112. January – February 1994: Pastoral and professional misconduct
113. March – April 1994: Single women
114. May – June 1994: Women in pastoral ministries
115. July – August 1994: Women in helping professions
116. September – October 1994: Women and CPS
117. November – December 1994: Abortion
118. January – February 1995: Mennonite women in business
119. March – April 1995: First generation Mennonite women
120. May – June 1995: Women and Islam
121. July – August 1995: Women and theology
122. September – October: 1995: Women and poverty
123. November – December 1995: Friendship
124. January – February 1996: Quiet in the Land: Conference report
125. March – April 1996: Women and AIDS
126. May – June 1996: Embracing change: Women in midlife
127. July – August 1996: Women and Mennonite worship
128. September – October 1996: Voices of young Mennonite women
129. November – December 1996: Infertility
130. January – February 1997: Mothers and sons
131. March – April 1997: Women and books
132. May – June 1997: Eating disorders
133. July – August 1997: Hispanic Anabaptist women's stories (Bilingual-Spanish/English)
134. September – October 1997: Older women
135. November – December 1997: Redefining, renaming & reclaiming symbols
136. January – February 1998: Learning to laugh
137. March – April 1998: Women doing peacemaking
138. May – June 1998: Women educating children
139. July – August 1998: Lesbians in the church: Experience & response
140. September – October 1998: Women and spiritual direction
141. November – December 1998: Women in ministry: Progress and backlash
142. January – February 1999: Spirituality through the arts
143. March – April 1999: Women and mentors
144. May – June 1999: Women working for justice
145. July – August 1999: Women's journey through grief
146. September – October 1999: Kaleidoscopes: Women juggling the fragments
147. November – December 1999: Forgiveness: Stories of redemption & healing
148. January – February 2000: Mennonite women in India
149. March – April 2000: Cross-cultural counseling
150. May – June 2000: Whatever happened to the prophetic voice?
151. July – August 2000: Women and ritual
152. November – December 2000: The implications of translation
153. January – February 2001: How the Bible is vital to feminist women of faith: Responses through the years
154. March – April 2001: Navigating the complex world of dating and mating
155. May – June 2001: Women, war and rape
156. July – August 2001: Image of God, image of self
157. September – October 2001: Domestic abuse: A concern for all (Bilingual—Spanish/English)
158. November – December 2001: Women, children and homelessness
159. January – February 2002: Women in Zimbabwe
160. March – April 2002: Caregiving for aging parents
161. May – June 2002: Barriers to women in leadership
162. July – August 2002: Women and AIDS
163. September – October 2002: Women who have left the church
164. November – December 2002: Anabaptist theology opposing violence against women
165. January – February 2003: Looking Back: Women's Concerns directors reflect
166. March – April 2003: Abuse prevention and recovery: History of MCC's work
167. May – June 2003: Women in Colombia (Bilingual—Spanish/English)
168. July – August 2003: Women's changing roles
169. September – October 2003: Theology and gender
170. November – December 2003: Looking forward
171. January – February 2004: Gifts of the Red Tent: Women creating
172. March – April 2004: Women and immigration (Bilingual—Spanish/English)
173. May – June 2004: Men's changing roles
174. July – August 2004: Women and education
175. September – October 2004: Women pastors
176. November – December 2004: Celebrating Report

Women's Concerns Report